UNH T2 Recognizes Latest Master Roads Scholars

DURHAM, NH.— The University of New Hampshire Technology Transfer Center (UNH T2) proudly recognized the latest NH Master Roads Scholars at a luncheon held in their honor on Thursday November 3rd, 2022 in Manchester, NH. The prestigious Master Roads Scholar award level recognizes transportation, public works, and highway maintenance professionals that complete at least 100 hours of classroom training with UNH T2 across content disciplines including safety, environmental, supervisory, and technical topics. The following individuals were recognized at the luncheon for their achievements as Master Roads Scholars:

Brad Hatfield – Town of Bedford
Brian Landry - City of Dover
Christopher Theriault – Town of Moultonborough
Courtney Mitchell - Town of Alton
Don Vachon – (Retired) Town of New Durham
Erin Paradis – Town of Barrington
Jamie Stevens – City of Dover
John Vatalaro – Town of Alton
Meghan Theriault - Town of Gilford
Tobias Shea – City of Portsmouth
William Lowney – Town of Hampton

Master Roads Scholars contribute their knowledge, expertise, and awareness of new technologies and techniques in road management to road agencies across New Hampshire, both through their practical application of their learning, as well as through mentorship and collaboration with public works colleagues. Their dedication to professional development supports safe, effective roadways for NH residents and visitors.

The UNH Technology Transfer Center fosters a safe, efficient, and environmentally sound surface transportation system by improving skills and increasing knowledge of the transportation workforce and decision makers. As the site of the state’s Local Technical Assistance Program, it works to enable New Hampshire’s cities and towns to improve their roads and bridges by supplying them with a variety of training programs, information on new and evolving practices, and customized technical assistance.
