

Become a ROAD SAFETY ADVOCATE

Help make local roads safer.

8 free webinars.

Practical tools.

Stronger, safer communities.

WHO SHOULD PARTICIPATE?

Elected Officials

Public Works

Law Enforcement

Public Health

Planners & Engineers

Whether you make decisions about local roads, maintain them, respond to crashes, or simply want to be part of the solution, the RSAP series of webinars can give you practical knowledge and tools to contribute.

2026 RSAP AT A GLANCE

8 Webinars.
All no cost.
Take one.
Take all.

September 30 -
November 17,
2026.

Earn your Road
Safety
Advocate certificate.

LEARN MORE >>

t2.unh.edu/programs/RSAP

YOU'LL LEARN HOW TO:

- ✓ Recognize common roadway safety risks
- ✓ Consider crash data and risk-based approaches to identify priorities
- ✓ Identify proven countermeasures
- ✓ “Read the roadway” for conditions that may contribute to crashes
- ✓ Work across disciplines and sectors
- ✓ Help develop a Local Road Safety Plan

