Ken Ward lost his battle with cancer in 2006. His admirable dedication to the public works industry was second to none. He pioneered the planning and executing of the snow plow rallies throughout our state; so to honor and continue his legacy, this Annual Ken Ward Memorial Snow Plow Rally Competition, is held.

Dana Wright, of E. W. Sleeper, also succumbed to cancer in 2006. Dana’s experiences working with Ken on the snow plow rallies, made him extremely instrumental in the planning of this day. Unfortunately, Dana won’t be with us on this day but his spirit will be... especially in the backhoe competition.

It was these two men that were hallmarks of successful competitions. They worked side by side in many of the snow plow rally competitions of the past; Ken to get the ball rolling and Dana to make sure it kept rolling. Ironically, they’re back working together again... this time from a different vantage point.

See you on September 16, 2015
