

Technology Transfer Center Celebrates its 15th Anniversary

August of 2001 marks the fifteenth anniversary of the Technology Transfer Center.

We'd like to share a few highlights from over the years.

1986

- The University of New Hampshire Technology Transfer Center opens.
- First issue of Road Business is published.
- Staff: John A. Anderson, Project Director; Yvonne E. Allen, Administrative Assistant;

Charles H. Goodspeed, University Liaison.

- Road Surface Management System (RSMS) development begins.

1987

- Start offering free publications upon request.
- Introduction of the video loan program, with 27 tapes.
- First meeting of Road Agents Association. Allen Lary elected President.

1988

- Roads Scholar Program is introduced in New Hampshire.
- First Mountain of Demonstrations held at Waterville Estates, in Campton
- RSMS issued for paved roads.

1989

- RSMS revised to include unpaved roads.

1990

- Edwin R. Schmeckpeper joins staff as a Research Engineer and instructor.
- Jennifer Rand replaces Yvonne Allen as administrative assistant.

1991

- Dowel and Glulam timber bridge and concrete span bridge erected in parking lot at Mountain of Demonstrations.

1992

- Edwin Schmeckpeper earns Ph.D. and leaves to assume an Assistant Professorship at Iowa.
- Paul Brown becomes Research Engineer.
- A.R. Van de Meulebroecke added to staff as T² engineer.
- Patty Ferrelli becomes a consultant for Public Works Management Systems.
- First Municipal Equipment Management System (MEMS) workshop offered.
- Quick Guides are published and distributed.
- Cold Emulation research conducted on Madbury roads.

1993

- John Anderson earns Ph.D. and becomes Director of Pennsylvania T² Center.
- Dave Fluharty replaces John Anderson as Director.
- Hilar Varik from Estonia begins a one year internship at UNH T² Center.
- Mountain of Demonstrations held in Nashua.

